

Doctors and Healthcare

Warm up

- Review our family vocabulary
 - I have a husband
 - I have a wife
 - I have 2 sons
 - I have 1 daughter

Vocabulary

Sick
(enfermo)

Feeling unwell and being affected by a disease or illness.

Symptoms
(el síntoma)

Physical signs or feelings from your body that show that you are sick or unwell

Fever
(la fiebre)

A rise in body temperature above 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit.

Vocabulary

Cold (el resfriado)		Symptoms of a cold include lots of coughing and sneezing, a runny nose, and a sore throat.
Cough (la tos)		A symptom of a cold or other sickness.
Ache (el doler)		Feelings of soreness and sensitivity on different parts of your body.

Vocabulary

Flu
(la gripe)

The symptoms include aches and pains and temperature over
100.4 (fever)

Medicine
(la medicina)

The doctor gives you
this to treat your symptoms and get rid
of them

Vocabulary

Doctor
(la doctora)

The professional who treats you at the hospital when you are sick

Hospital
(el hospital)

The building you go to
when you are feeling
sick or injured

Vocabulary

Sore throat (el dolor de garganta)		Pain in the throat
Headache (el dolor de cabeza)	 <small>VectorStock.com/12096299</small>	Pain in the head

EVERYDAY ENGLISH FOR ESL

2. At the Doctor's

Examples of questions your doctor may ask

- Why are you here today?
- What are your symptoms?
- Are you taking any medicine?
- Do you have a fever?

Things the Doctor will tell you

- Take 2 Aspirin every 6 hours. ----->

- Drink a lot of water and get good sleep. ----->

- Take 3 Tylenol every 8 hours. ----->

- Take your medicine once a day. ----->

Some things to tell your doctor

- My symptoms are a cough and fever. _____ →

- I have been taking my medicine 2 times a day. _____ →

- I have been feeling sick for 1 week. _____ →

- I came to the hospital for the flu. _____ →

Conversation at the Doctor's office

Example:

Doctor: Are you feeling sick?

You: Yes, I feel sick. I have a cough and fever.

Doctor: Do you have a fever?

Doctor: Are you taking your medicine?

Doctor: Do you have a headache?

Doctor: Do you have a sore throat?